Other comments

Do you have any other comments on the Competencies?

Hi, Overall it is a good change in the new pattern for written as well as the practical examinations. I would like to give my opinion to some points. The new pattern of written examination is good except for the mixed subjects in all four papers, as it is a bit confusing to revise few days prior to examination. With due respects, I would also like to add my opinion about the checking and evaluation of the results overall in both the examinations. In order to understand the mistakes ADC should provide the details of the mistakes to the candidates so that they can improve them and not to repeat those again. Thank you very much.
